DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Newly submitted claims 35-44 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons:

Claims 35-44 are claiming subject matter which is non-elected. An action has already been done on the species pilocarpine, thus the claims not including pilocarpine are withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to non-elected subject matter.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 35-44 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1654

Claims 22, 23, 45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Viner for the reasons of record and for the reasons which follow.

Applicant argues that using "consisting essentially of" in the claims now differentiates the claims from the prior art. This is not well taken since "consisting essentially of" does not necessarily limit the claims as applicant suggests.

From MPEP 2111.03:

For the purposes of searching for and applying prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102 and 103, absent a clear indication in the specification or claims of what the basic and novel characteristics actually are, "consisting essentially of" will be construed as equivalent to "comprising." See, e.g., PPG, 156 F.3d at 1355, 48 USPQ2d at 1355 ("PPG could have defined the scope of the phrase consisting essentially of for purposes of its patent by making clear in its specification what it regarded as constituting a material change in the basic and novel characteristics of the invention."). See also In re Janakirama-Rao, 317 F.2d 951, 954, 137 USPQ 893, 895-96 (CCPA 1963). If an applicant contends that additional steps or materials in the prior art are excluded by the recitation of "consisting essentially of," applicant has the burden of showing that the introduction of additional steps or components would materially change the characteristics of applicant's invention. In re De Lajarte, 337 F.2d 870, 143 USPQ 256 (CCPA 1964). See also Ex parte Hoffman, 12 USPQ2d 1061, 1063-64 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989) ("Although consisting essentially of is typically used and defined in the context of compositions of matter, we find nothing intrinsically wrong with the use of such language as a modifier of method steps. . . [rendering] the claim open only for the inclusion of steps which do not materially affect the basic and novel characteristics of the claimed method. To determine the steps included versus excluded the claim must be read in light of the specification. . . . [I]t is an applicant's burden to establish that a step practiced in a prior art method is excluded from his claims by consisting essentially of language.").

Since applicant's invention can also have other additives and substances in it as they contend Viner does there is no difference between Viner and applicant in that the compositions both have substances in them besides nicotine and pilocarpine.

Art Unit: 1654

Applicant next argues that Viner does not teach other substances besides pilocarpine but since the application is being examined with respect to pilocarpine this argument is moot.
